

Warisan Chow Kit:

Craft, Stories & Secrets of Old KL

Our limited-time Peranakan menu is a celebration of spoken legacies, shared across kitchen tables for generations. It is built on Baba-Nyonya recipes cooked the way they've always been cooked—at home, over time, by hand, with bold spices and local ingredients.

STARTERS

Kerabu Pucuk Paku 26

Wild fern salad, green mango, toasted coconut, torch ginger, calamansi-belacan dressing.

A local dish balancing sweet, sour and spicy flavours.

Nyonya Chap Chye 26

Braised mixed vegetables, lily buds, wood ear mushrooms, glass noodles, tofu puffs, fermented bean broth.

A Peranakan classic, commonly served at family meals.

MAINS

Ayam Pongteh 55

Chicken braised with fermented soybean paste, shallots, palm sugar. Served with steamed rice and acar.

A timeless Baba-Nyonya dish, savoury in flavour.

Ikan Assam Pedas Nyonya 55

Seabass simmered in tamarind broth with galangal, lemongrass, torch ginger flower, okra. Served with steamed rice.

A signature Peranakan dish - tangy and spiced.

DESSERTS

Kuih Kosui 25

Pandan and palm sugar rice cakes, topped with grated coconut.

A traditional Peranakan kuih served at festive occasions.

Bubur Cha Cha 25
